November 25, 1751. [NUMB. 915.]

CHARLES-TOWN, November 25.

On Thurſday the 14th Inſtant, ſeveral of the Gentlemen elected to ſerve as Members of the Aſſembly of this Province, met at the uſual Place; but a ſufficient Number to make a Houſe, not appearing before the 21ſt, the Honourable ANDREW RUTLEDGE, Eſq; was then choſen Speaker, and preſented to his Excellency the Governor in the Council-Chamber, who was pleaſed to approve their Choice, and make the following Speech to both Houſes, viz.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I MEET you in this firſt Seſſion of this General Aſſembly with great Pleaſure and Satisfaction; for, tho' all my Views center in the Welfare of the Province, and all my Endeavours are, at all Times, deſigned and directed for the Proſperity and Happineſs of the People, and I am determined, by the Divine Favour, ſteadily to purſue thoſe Ends, yet I act with greater Alacrity, when I am animated with your Advice, and with more Reſolution and Certainty, when I have the Sanction of your Approbation; and you are ſenſible that there are many Things that cannot be done without your Aſſiſtance.

I have called you together for the neceſſary Diſpatch of the Public Buſineſs, and it is reaſonable and juſt for you to expect, that I ſhould communicate to you what Buſineſs may be proper for you to proceed upon; but as I perceive that there is but one Member more than the Law expreſsly requires to make a Houſe of Aſſembly, I ſhall poſtpone moſt of what I have to ſay 'till you are more fully convened.

As this Province is almoſt ſurrounded with Indian Nations, and as the Six Nations are numerous and powerful, it will always be a principal Object of our Regard, to preſerve them in our Alliance; and ſurely our Care can never be more properly exerted, than when other European Powers ſeem to be courting their Friendſhip, and when we are ſenſible, that no Endeavours have been wanting either to withdraw them from us, or to make them weaken one another, by Wars among themſelves.

The Honourable Mr. Bull, who was ſome time ago ſent by me Commiſſioner to New York, has, in Conjunction with his Excellency Governor Clinton, and ſome Commiſſioners from other Governments happily concluded a Peace betwixt the Six Nations and the Catawba's, which I hope, will be a Means of preſerving that brave Nation the Catawba's: This Service we owed them for their Fidelity and Attachment to this Government, but it will at the ſame time redound to our own Quiet and Peace alſo.

The Cherokee's are now in Town; and as it is a Matter of the utmoſt Difficulty and Delicacy, fully to ſettle Matters with them, I am glad that I ſhall have your Advice and Aſſiſtance before I finiſh with them.

In the Council Chamber, JAMES GLEN.
Charles Town, the 21ſt Nov. 1751.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſq; Governor, Captain-General, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Aſſembly of this Province, return Your Excellency our ſincere and hearty Thanks for Your Excellency's Speech Yeſterday delivered to us at the opening of this Seſſion: From the Aſſurances you were therein pleaſed to give us of your Views being wholly centered in the Proſperity and Welfare of the Province, we cannot but entertain the greateſt Satisfaction, by hoping to enjoy the happy Fruits of ſuch a Diſpoſition: For the Furtherance of which, Your Excellency may always rely on our chearful Endeavours and Concurrence; and which will undoubtedly tend to make them more ſatisfactory to the good People we repreſent.

We are truly ſenſible of Your Excellency's Indulgence, in not laying now before us ſuch Things as may be neceſſary for the Conſideration of a fuller Houſe; which, when convened, Your Excellency's Sentiments communicated to us, and the Buſineſs you recommend, will always meet with all due and ready Attention.

Our Situation with Reſpect to the neighbouring Indians, is certainly a Matter of the utmoſt Importance and Concern to this Province, and requires an Union of the moſt mature and deliberate Councils, in which, Your Excellency may be aſſured, we ſhall, at all Times, be ready to give our beſt Advice, and Aſſiſtance.

It gives us great Pleaſure to hear, from Your Excellency, that prudent Meaſures have been taken towards the Eſtabliſhment of a Peace betweeh the Catawba's and the Six Nations of Indians, which will conduce to the general Security of the Province, and the more immediate Quiet of our Fellow-Subjects in the back Settlements; and which we hope to hear, will ſoon be finally and happily compleated.

By Order of the Houſe, ANDREW RUTLEDGE, Speaker.

In the Aſſembly,
the 22d Day of Nov. 1751.

LONDON.

Sept. 12. We hear that orders will be ſpeedily given for repairing, altering, and augmenting the fortifications of the antient city of Carliſle, and of the caſtle of Edinburgh, that they may be in a conſtant ſtate of defence in caſe of future troubles.

'Tis ſaid there is an account, that the new Iſland which Commodore Rodney went in ſearch of, was previouſly found out by the Danes, and that they are actually in poſſeſſion of it.

Monday morning Capt. Gorham, commander of a company at Nova Scotia, who came on board the Oſborn, Appleton, juſt arrived from thence, repaired to the plantation-office, in order to lay before that board an exact account of that colony.

Sept. 14. Our correſpondent at Paris informs us, that M. de la Touche, who arrived lately from the Eaſt Indies, has had the honour to preſent to his moſt Chriſtian majeſty the large diamond that was taken among the ſpoils of the late Nabob.

We learn from Holland, that the report is current there of the Danes having diſcovered and ſettled a certain Iſland, which, it is ſaid, will be of extraordinary conſequence in the management of that new ſcheme of commerce, that is believed to be the principal object of their councils at Copenhagen.

On Tueſday or Wedneſday next the right hon. the earl of Albemarle will ſet out for Paris, in order to compliment the French king on the birth of the Duke of Burgundy: And Mr. Dacoue, a French gentlemen, goes with his excellency as his ſecretary.

Sept. 17. On Sunday night laſt, an expreſs was diſpatch'd to Verſailles, and another to Madrid.

On Wedneſday laſt the lords of trade and plantations ordered five ſhips to be got ready to ſail for Nova-Scotia with two companies of Colonel Lee's regiment of foot, beſides guns, muſkets, ſwords, bayonets, powder, &c. for that colony.

Sept. 19. We hear that orders have been diſpatched from the lords of the admiralty to Commodore Rodney, by a ſloop of war, for his purſuing, with all diligence, the diſcovery of an Iſland, agreeable to the plan laid before that honourable board.

We hear that the right hon. the earl of Sandwich will ſoon have a conſiderable poſt again under the government.

Sept. 21. On Thurſday his excellency the earl of Albemarle ſet out with a great retinue, for Paris.

Sept. 24. Some letters from Copenhagen mention the ſafe arrival of their ſmall ſquadron at the place of its deſtination, and of their having laid the foundation of a fortreſs in an Iſland inhabited only by ſavages. But where this Iſland is ſituated we are not as yet inform'd.

As the parliament intend to meet the 14th of November next, we hear, there is a ſcheme ready to be offered to pay part part of the navy-debt, by way of lottery, on terms much more advantagious than the preceding, so it is to be hoped the adventurers of the present lottery tickets will not find bubbles enough to take them off their hands, unless they lower the price of them to near par.

We hear that his majesty intends next summer to visit his German dominions.

And that his royal highness the duke of Cumberland will accompany his majesty thither.

Paris, Sept. 18. His most Christian majesty has been pleased to create the Marquis de Mirepoix, now ambassador from his court to that of Great-Britain, a Duke of France. And has likewise been pleased to appoint M. de St. Contest, lately ambassador to the States General, to be secretary of state for Foreign affairs, in the room of the Marquis de Puysieux, who has resigned on account of his bad state of health.

London, Sept. 26. They write from Copenhagen, that a ship arrived there some days ago from the coast of Morocco, with a particular account of the arrangements made at Saffia and Santa Croce in favour of the Danes, whereby it appears that nation will clear annually about two millions of rix dollars by that new settlement.

By letters from Paris we are informed, that the French king has taken off four millions of the taxes.

The Matthews, Capt. Capt, sailed the 19th instant from Cowes for Virginia, having on board his excellency Robert Dinwiddie, lately appointed governor of that colony.

From Petersburgh we hear, that the Empress of Russia has of late taken such a fancy to the dress of the English ladies, that she has ordered no have dolls sent over from London, completely equipped in the various stiles now in fashion at court and in the city, as also the dethabil, and the riding habits; her Imperial majesty intending so introduce the same at her court: Though it is feared some material alterations may happen here, ere the dolls can be completely rigg'd, or at least before they reach Petersburgh, one moon being sufficient to give a turn to fashions.

Sept. 28. The king of France has sent Instructions to his ministers at foreign courts, to declare, that the alteration which has happened in the French ministry, by the voluntary resignation of the Marquis de Puysieux, and the nomination of M. de St. Contest as secretary of state for foreign affairs, shall make none in the general system of his court; and that his most Christian majesty would always be equally attentive to the means of strengthening the peace which at present happily subsists in Europe. The same declaration has been made to foreign ministers residing at the French court.

On Wednesday night the right hon. the earl of Granville, president of the council, arrived at his house in Arlington-Street, from Hawnes in Bedfordshire, to attend a council at Kensington on Thursday, when the sitting of the parliament for the dispatch of business, and several other affairs of moment, was ordered.

It is currently reported, that some new peers will be created in a very little time; and that as several affairs of very high importance will, during the next session, fall under consideration of parliament, the time of their sitting may be longer than is generally expected.

We hear that several curious and accute bills have been made of the officers employ'd by certain boards, with their known salaries and computed perquisites, together with estimates of the expence arising from the pay and perquisites of those by whom the business is actually done, from whence a parallel may be formed between public and parish economy, and some good hints taken for correcting both.

Orders are sent to his majesty's yards to keep the men of war laid up, in such repair, that they may be able to be made ready for the sea in a short time.

Yesterday a grand council was held at Kensington, when a proclamation was issued for the parliament's meeting on Thursday the 14th of November next.

October 3. Yesterday died admiral Matthews at his house in Bloomsbury-Square.

October 8. As the term draws near for the meeting of the grand council of the nation, it is with great pleasure we can assure the public, from the authority of the Anglo-Saxon Gazette, that Mr. Keene happily advances in his negotiations; that the differences between England and Spain will soon be terminated, the principal obstacles that retard the conclusion of the treaty, chiefly on the tapis, being already removed.—On the other hand, we are vexed to see it asserted, in the Hague Gazette, that though Mr. Keene continues to confer frequently with Count Joseph de Carvajal, the public is quite in the dark about what passes between them.—So that, for aught we know, a free Navigation may be obtain'd by a dash of the pen, or by the thunder of our floating castles.

Extract of a Letter from Plymouth, October 4.

Since my last come in the Warrior, Thompson, Master, and for London from Barbados, by which we have Advice that the French in the West-Indies are still doing what intended that they have all along apprehended, notwithstanding the gent Men have all along apprehended, notwithstanding the occasional Reports to the contrary: In fact, instead of making the least Disposition towards evacuating the Neutral Islands they were daily sending more People thither, and raising new Fortifications.

Oct. 10. We hear that a squadron of men of war will soon sail, under the command of Commodore Saunders, for a fleet of observation in the mediterranean.

By our last letters from Bombay, there is advice, that the Mattattas had set up a son of the murder'd Nabob Na Jung, and had intirely defeated the French party.

Whitehall, Oct. 13. This day an express arrived at Grace the duke of Newcastle's office, from Solomon Dr zolle, Esq; his majesty's resident to the States General of United provinces, with an account, that on Friday the 1 instant, about two o'clock in the morning, his most ser highness, the prince of Orange, hereditary stadtholder, c tain general and admiral general of the united provinces the low countries, died after a very short illness. And same day the states general, and also the states of Holla sent a deputation with compliments of condolence to princess royal upon this melancholy event, and to adm to her royal highness the oaths, as governante and guard to the young prince stadtholder her son.

Oct. 15. It is apprehended, that the unexpected death his Serene Highness the prince Stadtholder, at it is critical c juncture, and while certain negotiations of a very delic nature are upon the Carpet, will have a great influence on t general system of Affairs, and retard some measures of g consequence that were on the Point of being carried a Execution.

Oct. 19. Yesterday arrived an express from Holla which brought an account, that the courier that was d patched to notify the death of his serene highness the pri of Orange to his mother, the dowager princess of Oran was met on the road by another courier, who was com to the prince of Orange's court to acquaint them of the de of the said dowager princess of Orange, the late stadthold mother.

By the last accounts from Holland we hear, that her ro highness the princess of Orange is so dangerously ill that th is very little hopes of her recovery.

We learn from Stockholm, that nothing of importa will be decided in the diet, 'till after the ceremony of coronation shall be over; and that the shrewdest politici are of opinion, the disputes that have so long subsisted in North, will terminate in the fall of a great minister.

SUPPLEMENT To the South-Carolina GAZETTE.

November 25, 1751. [NUMB. 915.]

LONDON, October 17.

WE hear, and we hope not without foundation, that a motion will be made in the next ſeſſions of parliament, for inſerting a clauſe in ſome public bill, requiring an abſtract of the penal laws, paſſed in every ſeſſion, to be ſent in the ſame manner that briefs are, to every parish thro' out the kingdom; that ſince ignorance is no excuſe for diſobedience, it may not prove a trap to ſuch as, if they were acquainted with them, would not tranſgreſs the laws of their country.

October 19. Yeſterday the earl of Granville, lord preſident of the council, the duke of Newcaſtle, and the earl of Holderneſs, ſecretaries of ſtate, waited on his majeſty, with whom they ſtaid ſome hours.

A general ſurvey is making of his majeſty's ſhips of war, boops, &c. in order for their being kept in a condition for ſea on the leaſt notice.

Our correſpondent at Paris aſſures us, that the marquis de Puyſieux is treated by perſons of the higheſt rank in France, as well as by all the foreign miniſters, with a degree of reſpect altogether unuſual to a perſon who has quitted his employment.
